

Welcome

A Beautiful Home..

Located only a few miles from the beach, shopping mall, local medical centers, local parks and walking trails, Pacifica Royale Assisted Living Community is ideally situated between Westminster and Huntington Beach in Orange County. This beautiful three-story building offers a spacious TV lounge, complete with a wide-screen TV, a game room, a beauty shop, visitor and resident parking, and outdoor patios.

It is no ordinary home. Staying here is like being in a vacation spree. Every day is an event filled by various activities. You can hardly find yourself alone and thinking about tomorrow. While you indulge in individual interests, we concern ourselves of maintaining your healthy mind and body in a safe setting.

We are not a nursing home. We help you keep your independence while you receive assistance in daily living. You have the aid that you need within the facility. Privacy is highly respected by the staff and will only be with you when you call out. Coming to our home is about keeping your needs close by. Everything else remains the same.

Who We Are

Pacifica Royale Assisted Living Community is a well-established alternative for families who want to provide their loved one's aging needs. We value the preservation of privacy and choice. Our place offers an ambiance of lightness and permissibility for any possibilities. For a low cost, you receive care yet continue to hold your autonomy.

Excellent Care...

We are a licensed residential care home for the elderly. For a monthly fee, you receive three meals daily, cooked and served in our main dining room, a full activities program, routine and emergency maintenance service, daily housekeeping, scheduled transportation for doctor's appointments, shopping, banking etc. and a 24-hour emergency call system.

Friendly Faces...

Our caring staff members are trained to give professional, around-the-clock services and care for our residents. Each one has received certification in First Aid and training in emergency cases.

What We Do
